

Raglan Festival

8-10th June 2018

Our annual 3-day music festival is held at many venues throughout the village, with children's music workshops as well as performances from choirs, brass bands, rock bands and cover artists.

With the addition of a Street Party, this year's festival promises to be the best yet!

Programme details for the 2018 line-up will be available very soon.